

Pursuing the frontiers of knowledge

Presents

Impact of Socio-Economic reforms on Sustainable Development in Zambia:
Quo vadis Radisson Blu Hotel. 3rd - 4th December, 2020 Lusaka- Zambia

Conference Themes

1. Zambia Economic Reform Policies and their impacts.
2. Social, Cultural and Political Development.
3. Agricultural Development
4. Economic development
5. Engineering, Technology and ICT,
6. Education and its role in national development
7. Zambia's foreign policy on economic development.
8. The Donor community and NGOs in the wake of the economic reforms in Zambia.
9. Intellectual histories and history of ideas
10. Leadership and Governance

Submission papers Deadlines

- Full papers: 15th November, 2020

Conference fees

- ZMW 1000 or US$ 100 Students : ZMW 700
- Virtual attendance ZMW 200

Register online : <https://research.mu.ac.zm/research/index.php/mu/user/register> or email conference@mu.ac.zm or bwalya1983@gmail.com or phiricap@yahoo.co.uk

Note:

Some papers submitted will be considered for publication in the new Mulungushi University Multidisciplinary Journal (MUDJ) to be launched in during the conference in 3-4 December, 2020.

Article Processing fees

1. ZMW 600 for Zambians authors,
2. US$ 50 International

For more information call : +260 969 987546/+260 973 196541/0965120512 or email : conference@mu.ac.zm or copy bwalya1983@gmail.com / phiricap@yahoo.co.uk

Note that those who had earlier submitted to attend the conference in March 2020 need to notify the above address to register.

* Attendance for physical presence at the conference will be on first come first serve basis